"Lift up your vision; Keep looking up."

If educational work is worth while; if juvenile courts are worth while; if clean as well as pure foods are worth while; if a more scientific knowledge and practice of domestic science is worth while; if better legislation for women and children is worth while; if organized effort to benefit the poor, the needy, those who have faltered by the wayside, is worth while; if higher and better standards of morality are worth while; if a better understanding of the fullness of life, with its responsibilities and privileges, is worth while—if these things are worth while, then the Federation is worth while, for along these and many other lines are women working together for the upbuilding of a kingdom on earth in which each shall serve her fellow creatures, and all shall work together for the good of the whole.

MARY I. WOOD.

"We club women, if we would serve effectively, should seek to equip ourselves with three things:: First, willingness to serve; second, ability to serve; third, opportunity to serve.

"Ability to serve growing out of close application, study and experience is a prime requisite. Leadership, executive ability and that rare power of winning and holding the confidence and love of others and of inspiring in them their best, are attributes of the highest type of club woman."

—MRS. JOHN F. SIPPEL.

ONE OF ELEANOR JOY TOLL'S FAVORITES

I would be friend to all, the foe, the friendless;
I would be giving and forget the gift;
I would be humble, for I know I've weakness;
I would look up, and love, and laugh and lift."
—E. WALTERS.

DECEMBER TWENTY-FIFTH—

Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight!
Christmas in lands of the fir tree and pine,
Christmas in lands of the palm tree and vine,
Christmas where snow peaks stand solemn and
white,

Christmas where corn fields stand sunny and bright.

Christmas where children are hopeful and gay,
Christmas where old men are patient and grey,
Christmas where peace, like a dove is his flight;
Broods o'er brave men in the thick of the fight;
Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight!

For the Christ-child who comes is the Master
of all;

No palace too great, no cottage too small.

"Salute to the Flag"

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

(By courtesy of the South Pasadena Woman's Club)

When it's time for meeting,
And the friendly greeting,
Start it with a smile!
What's the use of sighing,
Send all gloom a'flying,
Start it with a smile!
When we get together,
Always fair the weather,
Sunshine all the while!
Every song we sing,
Just makes the rafters ring,
So start it with a smile!

AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL

Official Song of the General Federation of Women's Clubs and of

The California Federation of Women's Clubs

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain.
America! America!

God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood,
From sea to shining sea.

O beautiful for pilgrim feet
Whose stern impassioned stress
A thoroughfare for freedom beat
Across the wilderness.
America! America!

God mend thine ev'ry flaw,
Confirm thy soul in self-control,
Thy liberty in law.

—KATHERINE LEE BATES.

AULD LANG SYNE

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne

REFRAIN:

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne;
We'll tak' a cup o' kindness yet
For auld lang syne.

And here's a han' my trusty frien'
And gies a hand o' thine;
We'll take a cup o' kindness yet
For auld lang syne.

THE MORE WE GET TOGETHER

The more we get together, together,
The more we get together, the happier we'll be.
When your friends are my friends,
And my friends are your friends,
The more we get together, the happier we'll be!

Like a star
That shines afar,
Without haste and without rest
Let each man wheel with steady sway.
Round the task that rules the day
And do his best.

—ANON.

To make happy some heart each day,
Just one kind word, or a tender smile,
As we go on our daily way.
